“I’ve always been a respected member of my community”

“So please don’t speak to me like a mug”

The way we act and speak to people we care for can dent their pride and make them feel worthless - A little respect isn’t too much to ask.